

The Civic Convention Will Bring Them Together at Hilo

Shade of the Demigod Maui: "This sure beats me. I never could bring these islands together." The legend of Coconut Island, Hilo, is that when the demigod Maui with his magic hook fished the island of Maui up from the sea, trying to connect it with Hawaii, something went wrong and the island slipped back to its present position, with a channel between the two islands. Coconut Island is said to be a small piece which remained on the hook.

VOLLMER ENTERS 220-YARD SWIM AGAINST FIELD

is a great 220 swimmer, the other entrants will have to be at their best to win.

The question as to whether Vollmer and Cann would enter their events in which they won the national title has created more discussions around the city than any other athletic incident in some time. Vollmer was entered in the 220 yard swim and Cann in the 500.

The two swimmers are national champions at this distance. Many people are under the impression that they hold the records for this distance. They do not. They are called national champions because they won that event at a sanctioned national meet. Cann is national champion in the 500, but his time is more than 10 seconds slower than the best American time made by Langer last night in the 500 yard swim.

When the two New York boys were asked on Thursday night regarding their entrance into these distances, they announced that they would not compete owing to a promise made their club that they would not race in these events. Immediately many swimming fans of Honolulu became indignant at the boys, and a few called a mass meeting at the roof garden of the Alexander Young hotel. Here the matter was discussed and the blame was finally fixed upon the New York Athletic Club officials.

On Friday morning at the suggestion of the Star-Bulletin the officials of the A. A. U. cabled F. W. Rubien to ask the club if the boys could not be permitted to swim. The answer received this morning means that Herbert Vollmer will meet Duke P. Kahanamoku in the furlong swim to night on the harbor. Inasmuch as Cann has failed to make time in the 500 which approaches that of Langer, there is no harm done.

In circuit court this morning in the case of Tsune Horita against Kotaro Takamoto, an injunction proceeding, stipulation was filed by attorneys allowing the petitioner until September 9 in which to file reply.

Violet Catton, defendant in the assault case brought by David O'Hama, filed demand for jury trial this morning in circuit court.

LOVE OF LIBERTY IS NATURE'S LAW, JUDGE DECLARES

"Nature's first law is self-defense, and I presume the second is love of liberty," declared Circuit Judge Clarence W. Ashford this morning in court during the arraignment proceedings over E. de la Cruz, Filipino, indicted late yesterday afternoon by the territorial grand jury.

Judge Ashford's words were given in reply to William T. Carden, second deputy attorney for the city and county who was acting for the prosecution. Carden had related before the judge pronounced sentence how the prisoner, who had already pleaded guilty to two charges of burglary in the first degree, had committed the crimes following a jail break on Hawaii. Carden urged a substantial sentence.

"A man who will break jail when he gets a chance deserves to stay there," continued the judge. "We must not lose sight of the fact that it is the duty of officers to keep their prisoners, and not put all the blame on the prisoner."

The Filipino was sentenced to hard labor for two years in Oahu prison on each of the two charges of which he was convicted. The total will be a period from nine to 11 years.

"If you make an effort to reform you will come from prison 11 years from now an honest man," Judge Ashford told the prisoner, adding, "that while the case was a serious one longer sentence would be merely piling Ossa upon Pelion." The interpreter transmitted the classic phrase to the prisoner and the case passed into history. Cruz's only request was that he be sent to one of the outdoor camps and not shut up in prison.

Formal transfer of the Stangenwald building has been completed. Transfer of the deed to the property in the rear of the building from the Castle estate to the Charles Brewer estate was recorded Thursday. Its value is given as $57,765.

What He Found

"Having drunk an excellent cup of coffee," said a certain physician, "I found that I hadn't drunk coffee, but Postum!"

Numbers of people, like this doctor, have been pleasantly surprised at the pleasant aroma and snappy, Java-like taste of

And yet, Postum doesn't contain a particle of coffee—and better still, not a particle of the drug, caffeine, nor any other harmful substance. Postum.

Postum is made from wheat, roasted with a bit of wholesome molasses—a pure food-drink that is both healthful and delicious. A great many sufferers from headaches, "coffee heart," nervousness, sleeplessness and other ills brought on by the use of coffee with its nerve-destroying drug, caffeine, have found happy relief by quitting coffee and using

POSTUM

"There's a Reason"

Postum comes in two forms: Postum Cereal—the original form—must be boiled; Instant Postum—soluble—is made in the cup with hot water, instantly. The cost per cup is about the same, and both kinds are equally delicious when made right.
